ORDER

This matter is before the court on defendant's Motion to Continue Trial [25]. For the reasons set forth in the motion, the court finds good cause for the requested trial continuance and will grant the motion, in part. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that the Motion to Continue Trial [25] is granted, as follows:

1. The jury trial now set for April 26, 2022, is continued to July 19, 2022.
2. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this continuance and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and July 19, 2022, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant a continuance would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B)(iv).
3. The request for an extension of the pretrial motion is denied, without prejudice. Should the need for a specific pretrial motion be determined, counsel may request an extension in accordance with NECrimR 12.3(a).

DATED: March 8, 2022

BY THE COURT:

s/ Michael D. Nelson
United States Magistrate Judge
